

Alumnae of Color Committee (AoCC) Board of Governors Report February 2018

The Alumnae of Color Committee (AoCC) is pleased to share the following highlights from this past quarter:

November 11, 2017 AoCC Holiday Party: 45 attendees. See attached report for more details.

January 13, 2018 AoCC General Meeting: 13 attendees. See attached minutes for more details.

January 28, 2018 AoCC Monthly Brunch with Mills Students: 10 attendees, including 5 Summer Academic Workshop (SAW) students.

February 2, 2018 event with Dolores Huerta, introduced by Congresswoman Barbara Lee: at least 4 AoCC members attended the VIP reception and screening of the film including Estrellita Hudson Redus, Micheline Beam, and co-chairs Connie Davidson and María D. Domínguez.

AoCC looks forward to participating in the BHM365 Black History Month events, starting with the February 7, 2018 student dinner at Founders with guest alumnae and AoCC member, Kymberly Jackson. See attached flyer for more details.

AoCC is partnering with the Norcal Columbia Alumni for a joint networking event: Revelations: Art from the African American South Docent Tour on Saturday, February 10, 1:30 - 4:00 pm, at the de Young Museum in San Francisco. Thus far, 9 AoCC members have expressed an interest in attending. AoCC member Mi-Kyung "Miki" Hong made this connection possible.

Next AoCC General Meeting: Saturday, March 3, 2018, 10 am - 12 pm at Cowell Building. A teleconference option is available.

AoCC Phenomenal Women of Color Celebration 2018 will take place on Wednesday, April 18, 2018 at the Mills College Student Union in the late afternoon/early evening. Exact Time TBA. This year's Phenomenal Woman Award honoree is Mills College Ethnic Studies professor, Dr. Melinda Micco.
