The evening began with instrumental music played by Cornelius Boots . The Shakuhachi is a woodwind flute of Japanese origin . The music set the tone of serenity and peace for the evening.

We had an array of international teas and treats provided by the ASR committee and BOG along with a delicious and abundant Chinese dinner cooked by parents of a Mills student. Our special thanks to Dr. Chui-Hun Chen who organized the dinner. This year the Provost's office funded the dinner.

There were 19 students, 5 faculty members and 6 members of the AAMC and BOG.

After dinner we shared our first impressions of the US and Mills. We had lively sharing and discussion.
